INNOVATORS

Celebrated May 18-24, the theme of the 2008 National Public Works Week (NPWW) is “The Future Is Now.” This year’s theme offers a great opportunity to recognize the great innovators in your bureau or office that have placed plans in action to make the Department of Public Works better prepared for the future (for example: improved efficiency, initiated/enhanced a program, solved a problem, created a partnership, etc.). Plans and/or actions should be innovations that have benefited the Department’s internal operations and/or external stakeholders and should have taken place after January 1, 2007.

All nominations must be received by Friday, April 18 before 5:00 p.m.

Fax, gray mail or email your form to: Public Affairs Office, 200 N. Spring Street, Room M-165, Los Angeles, CA 90012 • Mail Stop: 952 • Fax: (213) 978-0332
E-mail: stephanie.interiano@lacity.org • For more information, call (213) 978-0333
