

COMMUNITY EVENT

Saturday, May 5, 2007

WWW.CD12.ORG

Greig Smith Council District 12

LOS ANGELES CITY COUNCILMAN GREIG SMITH

Fun and Great Food for a Great Cause at 2007

S.O.L.I.D. Pancake Breakfast

Northridge - The Supporters of Law Enforcement in Devonshire's (SOLID) all-you-can-eat Pancake Breakfast has become a Valley tradition.

Councilman Greig Smith and Chief of Staff Mitchell Englander, both LAPD Reserve Officers, flipped pancakes and served up food and fun at the Pancake Breakfast on Saturday, May 5 at the Devonshire Community Police Station in Northridge.

They joined dozens of community members, police officers, and community leaders.

Councilman Smith volunteering as a pancake flipper at the SOLID Pancake Breakfast.

Councilman Smith's Chief of Staff, Mitchell Englander, working the griddle at the SOLID Pancake Breakfast.

Photo-ID cards and fingerprinting for kids was available to parents for free. Proceeds from the event go to provide our Police Officers with non-City supplied equipment.

For more information on SOLID, visit www.SOLIDdev.org.