LOS ANGELES CITY COUNCILMAN GREIG SMITH

COUNCILMAN SMITH LAUNCHES HIS “COMMUNITY SERVICE PARTNERSHIP”

Northridge – Councilmember Greig Smith will launch his “Community Service Partnership” on Saturday, August 7th at the Wilkinson Center in Northridge. Councilman Smith’s Community Service Partnership is an ongoing program in which he and his staff partner with Neighborhood Councils and community-based organizations on projects that are important to them and the community.

The first project is a post-spring cleaning of the Wilkinson Senior Center in Northridge. Northridge Community groups including the Old Northridge Neighborhood Council will join the Councilman and the Twelfth District Council Office in cleaning floors, windows, walls, gardening and hardscape projects.

Councilman Smith’s Community Service Partnership will be participating in monthly projects on Saturdays, within the Twelfth District. If your Neighborhood Council or community organization would like to recommend projects to partner on for the benefit of the community, please contact Elaine Pfefferman at 818-701-5253.
