COUNCILMAN SMITH TAKES IT TO THE STREETS

Northridge – As part of an ongoing campaign to commit volunteer time to cleanup projects recommended by constituents, Councilman Greig Smith and his staff will devote Saturday morning to a “Community Service Partnership” with community-based organizations in the Northridge area.

The cleanup will span the Northridge community and will focus on the removal of illegal signs, trimming of weeds and removal of debris and trash along major thoroughfares. Participants will meet on Saturday morning, September 18th at 8:00am in the parking lot for the Macaroni Grill in the Northridge Fashion Center, where tasks will be assigned.

Councilman Smith said: “I am always willing to assist the community in taking on projects that are important to them. A community service partnership provides a sense of pride and accomplishment for those who want to improve the appearance and safety of their neighborhoods.”
