LOS ANGELES CITY COUNCILMAN GREIG SMITH

Councilman Smith Honors Chatsworth High School in City Council for Winning 7th L.A. City Victory

Los Angeles - Councilman Greig Smith presented certificates and plaques to the Chatsworth High School Chancellors baseball team in City Council Friday, June 15, 2007, to congratulate them on their seventh L.A. City Championship.

The New York Times last week called Chatsworth the official capital of prep baseball. "I just call them our hometown heroes," Councilman Smith said.

The entire baseball team was on hand, including power-hitter Mike Moustakas and third baseman Matt Dominguez, both of whom made national news last week when they were selected in Major League Baseball's first-year draft.

Moustakas was chosen by the Kansas City Royals as the No. 2 overall selection and Dominguez was taken by the Florida Marlins at No. 12.

Chatsworth Head Coach Tom Meusborn, who led the team to six of their seven championships, was also on hand.

Chatsworth won the City Championship when it beat Grover Cleveland High School in a game at Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles on Saturday, June 2, 2007.

Chatsworth has emerged as a baseball powerhouse, being the only team in the nation to have won back-to-back National Baseball Championships, in 2003 and 2004, and one of the only high schools to have ever had two first-round draft players in the same year.
